Condiments & Entrails

John Durak's latest is a collection of poetry, appropriately entitled 'Condiments & Entrails'. Embraced by the likes of Will Self, Nick Cave, Stephen Fry and Benjamin Zephaniah, the book consists of 176 pages with illustrations by OmegaTheKid/Phoenix and printed by Cerovski Print Boutique.

Each copy has one of three different stickers on the cover, which when removed reveals a hidden message, and leaves the book titleless. To mark this occasion we have also produced 100 limited edition screen-printed B2 posters, each of which has been signed and numbered.

Peter Bailey Company

Based in London, with offices in New York, Peter Bailey Company represents some of the finest photographic talent around.

They approached us for a new logo and an overall facelift. Bunch created a monogram, which was developed for the use on stationery and promotional materials. We adapted a strong colour palette, which was given to the crew at Peter Bailey's to use as they see fit in order to accompany all photographic material.

Allegheny Financial

Corporate identity for a property developer. Through a subtle use of Didot we've created a website, stationery, bags, mugs, as well as the 2011 (in latin MMXI) collateral that includes a screen-printed corporate planner, red foiled calender and the Christmas card.
